To All Ontario Electricity Customers

Learn more. Have your say.

Hydro One has applied to the Ontario Energy Board to increase the amount that a typical residential customer pays for transmission service by $0.11 each month beginning January 1, 2015 and by $0.18 each month beginning January 2016 by seeking approval of changes to province-wide uniform transmission rates.

Hydro One has also submitted a proposed comprehensive Settlement Agreement that it reached with the ratepayer and other groups that participated in Hydro One’s last transmission rate hearing. These groups represent a broad range of customers.

The OEB’s decision on this application will have an effect on all electricity consumers in Ontario. Any change to the Uniform Transmission Rate will cause a change to the delivery line on all electricity bills (residential and business).

The Ontario Energy Board (OEB) will hold a public hearing to consider Hydro One’s request, including the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement. We will question the company on its case for a rate change. We will also hear arguments from individuals and from groups that represent Hydro One customers. At the end of this hearing, the OEB will decide what, if any, change will be allowed.

The OEB is an independent and impartial public agency. We make decisions that serve the public interest. Our goal is to promote a financially viable and efficient energy sector that provides you with reliable energy services at a reasonable cost.
